

RIIMPO321F Conduct civil construction wheeled front end loader operations

Get valuable training from our industry trainers on a well maintained fleet of modern plant and equipment

We provide practical training at our training site using modern mobile plant.

This training is nationally recognised and will provide you with the skills and knowledge to operate a bobcat/skid steer loader

This training is well suited to those wanting to work on:

- Civil construction sites
- Mining sites
- Landscaping
- Construction sites

Duration of course is 2 - 3 days including assessment
All training and assessment is completed in the workplace

Outcome: Statement of Attainment for RIIMPO321F Conduct civil construction wheeled front end loader operations and a wallet sized plastic industry card

*Minimum Numbers Apply

To enrol in the course, students must:

- Pass a language, literacy and numeracy assessment (LLN)
- Be a minimum 16 years of age
- Provide two forms of identification
- Wear steel capped or safety boots on site.

Check our website for available courses and pricing

www.calibretd.com

07 3899 6402

This Front End Loader machinery course is a nationally recognised unit of competency that will give you the skills to operate this machinery on a construction site, farm or a building site. It includes planning and preparing, conducting machine pre-operational checks, operating the machine, lifting, carrying and placing materials, selecting, removing and fitting attachments, relocating the machine, carrying out machine operator maintenance and cleaning up.

Front end loader are used on worksited around Australia and if you are looking ofr employment in the trade or construction indistry this may be a great opportunity.

On successful completion of the course you will receive a Statement of Attainment that is a nationally recognised competency for these units along with a wallet sized card